Are the housewives in their praise of

PURITY FLOUR

They say that it is most certainly indispensable when you want to do superior baking. Of course, you can use other flour—but do you get good results?

Extra Pages During Holidays.

The approach of the holiday season which occasions extra pressure upon the advertising columns of the News, we have decided to insert a section of four extra pages, beginning with the Friday issue of this week and continuing through the holidays. The value of advertising in the News has been more and more felt among the merchants of the city and with a view of securing the desired amount of space in which to place their holiday bargains before the people, have contracted for advertisements far in advance in the holiday season. In order that we may not be compelled to stint the reading public we will add the extra section.
